

Life in Osaka International Centre

Osaka International Centre, Japan International Cooperation Agency extends a hearty welcome to all JICA participants

Osaka International center (OSIC) is located in Ibaraki City, Osaka prefecture, in the heart of the Kansai region. Ibaraki lies close to the ancient cultural centers of Kyoto and Nara, and to the commercial, industrial and economic center of Osaka, and the city of Kobe. Surrounded by sundry interesting and unique places, life in OSIC will be great fun to you all.

Life in Osaka International Centre

Facilities of OSIC

Place of interest in Kansai region (under construction)
 Climate in Osaka or other cities in Japan
 Consumer prices of daily commodities

Facilities of OSIC

Library

The OSIC library contains 10,000 volumes on international cooperation and technical training in Japanese and foreign languages, as well as documentation on recruitment for the Japan Overseas Cooperation Volunteers (JOCV). In concert with JICA headquarters and the Institute for international Cooperation (IFIC), the OSIC library provides information on developing countries.

Opening hour / Tuesday and Thursday : 10:00-18:00 Saturday : 10:00-13:00, 14:00-18:00 Wednesday and Friday : 11:30-19:30

Closed on Sundays, Mondays, Public Holidays and during the New Year holiday period.

*We are sorry that we are not able to lend you those books.

Restaurant

Here, you can enjoy a variety of ethnic foods from all over the world. Good taste but inexpensive is what you will find.

Opening hour / Lunch:11:30-14:00 Dinner: 17:30-21:00

Last order is 30 minutes before closing.

Opening hours occasionally change for official reasons.

Please call us to see whether the restaurant is open.

Seminar rooms and conference rooms

They are available for meeting about international cooperation and exchange. Further information may be asked. 22 seminar rooms and conference rooms (for 16-80 people) international conference room: with simultaneous interpretation room(190 people maximum)

Accommodations

280 single rooms and 10 twin rooms are available for overseas participants and those concerned with international cooperation and exchange.

Leisure Facilities

Gymnasium, Tennis court, Mini soccer court, Billiards corner and Audio & Disco room

