

Smoke rising from a coal-fired power plant/Kosovo, photo: JICA

Halong Bay/Vietnam photo: Getty Images

Waste segregation in Kataragama, Sri Lanka/photo: JICA/Yusuke Abe

JICA will contribute to the realization of "clean cities" in urban areas of developing countries based on the "JICA Clean City Initiative (JCCI)".

JICA Clean City Initiative (JCCI) Kick-off International Seminar

For Human Security, Quality Growth and Global Environment

Date

Free of Charge!

WED. 19th - THU. 20th January 2022

Language: Japanese, English and Spanish (Simultaneous interpretation)

Japanese companies will introduce their products and technologies in the fields of environmental management and climate change at "Business Pitch".

- ▶ How to create recycling-oriented societies.
- ▶ How to create low-carbon /decarbonized societies.
- ▶ Review of good practices (Malaysia, Bangladesh, Vietnam, Thailand, Uruguay, Mexico, etc.)

Online Exhibition: TUE. 18th - THU. 27th January

*Exhibitors (companies) will communicate with participants online (chating, meeting, etc.)

Registration
please apply via QR code.

JCCI Secretariat
Kuze (Ms.) / Hieda (Mr.)
E-mail: jcci-secretariat@oecc.or.jp

▶ The seminar will be held simultaneously in the main room and the side room on January 19 and 20.

▶ Program details are available on the JICA event page (https://www.jica.go.jp/english/news/field/2021/20211227_01.html).

Program

	Main Room	Side Room	Online Exhibition/ Business Matching (18-27 Jan.)
19th 10:00 - 16:45 (JST)	Opening Remarks
	Keynote Speech: "Japan's Experience and International Cooperation on Environmental Management through JCCI"
	JCCI Case Study (Promoting "Clean Cities" in Vietnam)	Japan's Infrastructure Export Strategy
	Solid waste management in Bangladesh : collective actions towards clean cities.	Local government cooperation (Thailand, Vietnam, etc.)
20th 9:00 - 16:00 (JST)	Development under the declaration of carbon neutrality (Malaysia)	Business pitches: Introduction of technologies (mainly environmental management filed) by Japanese companies.
	From projects to sustainable development and progress (Mexico, Uruguay, Thailand)	Achievements through grassroots cooperation (Inter-municipal cooperation) (Mexico, Solomon Islands)
	Toward a Recycling-Oriented Society and Economy (Indonesia, Thailand)	Overseas expansion of Japanese companies and technologies
	Towards sustainable development and carbon neutrality	Business pitches: Introduction of technologies (mainly "low-carbon/decarbonized society" filed)
	Closing Remarks

Speakers: Officials from JICA projects in developing countries; government agencies, development aid agencies, Japanese local governments, ministries, etc.

Supported by