DPUB2 Project for Promoting Employment of Persons with Disabilities in Mongolia

1. The employer awareness raising seminar was rehearsed

DPUB2 advocacy team keeps preparing for the employer awareness raising seminar that will be conducted in October.

On 5th August, Ms. Munkhtuul and Ms. Erdenezul demonstrated the lectures on "The value employees with disabilities bring to companies" and "Case reviews of reasonable accommodation in the private companies." Both of them were demonstrating well by following the advices from the experts from Mirairo Inc. in Japan, which were on time management of each slide and lecture delivery as scripted.

Ms. Erdenezul, giving the lecture to advocacy team members.

On 16th August, Ms. Batzaya, Ms. Sarantuya, and Ms. Temuulen conducted a lecture rehearsal on "The value employees with disabilities bring to companies," "Reasonable accommodation in companies," and "Understanding persons with disabilities." Japanese experts and the advocacy team member with disability advised good points and points for improvements with the participants. Ms. Oyunbat, Ms. Batchmeg, and Ms. Borolmaa will come to the next rehearsal.

2. The preparation meeting for the practical skill training on support and assistance for persons with disabilities

Meeting with the facilitators for practical exercise.

On 24th August, Japanese experts and persons with disabilities from the advocacy team member with disability had a meeting to discuss the methods and content of "practical skill training on support/assist persons with disabilities," which is a part of the above-mentioned seminar.

Regarding the assistance/manners on how to guide persons with visual impairment, the contents and procedure were mainly discussed with Mr. Oyunbat of the National Association for the Visually Impaired. As for the support skill of wheelchair users, Mr. Lkhamjav and Ms. Munkhjargal from "Universal progress" shared their ideas as they have rich experience in conducting such training in Mongolia. It was agreed to inform the seminar participants that persons with disabilities have different needs even if they have the same types of impairments, and some points to note on manners/communication when we support persons with disabilities were also included in the training. A training rehearsal will be held on 8th September in the conference room of the Mongolia-Japan Centre.
