

Quiz for Crop Calendar Making Answers and Explanations

	Question	Choices	Answer	Explanation
1	What is the main purpose of making the Crop Calendar?	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. To plan production and marketing of the target crops.</li> <li>2. To understand the market needs.</li> <li>3. To establish linkages with market stakeholders.</li> <li>4. To improve gender relations.</li> </ol>	1	The making of the Crop Calendar Making aims at making an annual plan both for production and marketing of the target crops.
2	Which statement is true regarding Crop Calendar?	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. The farmers collect market information.</li> <li>2. The farmers learn about agricultural machinery.</li> <li>3. The farmers plan group activities both in production and marketing</li> <li>4. The farmers choose the target crops.</li> </ol>	3	The main purpose of Crop Calendar making is to plan production and marketing activities as a group.
3	Who should attend the Crop Calendar Making meeting organized by the target farmer groups?	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Group representatives.</li> <li>2. All the members of the group.</li> <li>3. The farmers who participated in the Market Surveys.</li> <li>4. The farmers who participated in the Participatory Baseline Survey.</li> </ol>	2	Crop Calendar Making should be done by all the members of the group as it is one of the group's collective actions for improving their farming business.
4	Who should be the main organizer of the meeting for making the Crop Calendar?	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. The SHEP implementing team at the central government office.</li> <li>2. The Subject Matter Specialists.</li> <li>3. The general members of the farmer group.</li> <li>4. The extension staff who is in charge of the target farmer group.</li> </ol>	4	The extension staff in charge of the target farmer group organizes the meeting in collaboration with farmer representatives.
5	What are the three main components that need to be discussed in making the Crop	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Post-harvest techniques, seed prices, labor cost.</li> <li>2. Production schedule, marketing/business management issues, and group activities.</li> <li>3. Production techniques, establishing market linkages, and marketing cost.</li> </ol>	2	Crop Calendar captures (1) production, (2) marketing & business management and (3) group activities/ others.

	Calendar?	4. Transportation, road repair and cost reduction.
6	Which one of the followings is an appropriate method to raise farmers' motivation during the making of the Crop Calendar?	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. The implementers ask a few educated group leaders to decide everything for the group.</li> <li>2. The implementers invite agricultural experts from a university to convince the farmers to grow specific crops in accordance with the planting schedule the experts have made.</li> <li>3. The implementers facilitate the discussions among the farmers and let the farmers plan by themselves.</li> <li>4. The implementers draft the Crop Calendar and ask the farmers to adopt the calendar.</li> </ol>	3	In order to raise farmers' motivation, it is important for the farmers to make decisions themselves. This process supports their psychological need for autonomy.
7	Which of the following voices indicates that the target farmer did NOT achieve the objective of Crop Calendar making?	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. "I'm glad that I was able to make a plan which the group members can work on together."</li> <li>2. "It is my first time to analyze which crops are most profitable."</li> <li>3. "I need to work hard not only for producing crops but also for marketing them."</li> <li>4. "I feel it's important for the group members to work collectively throughout the year so that we can get better prices during marketing."</li> </ol>	2	The comparison of profitability of crops is done during Target Crop Selection, not during the making of the Crop Calendar.