

Smart
Public Service
SMAP

Higher Council for Decentralised Governance

Project on Human Resources Development for Darfur and the Three Protocol Areas 2009 to 2013

Bring Smiles through Smart Public Service

Project Overview

Project Title:	“Human Resources Development for Darfur and the Three Protocol Areas”
Project Purpose:	Capacities of service providers for water supplies, health (maternal health) and vocational training are improved in the three Darfur states and Blue Nile and South Kordofan States.
Project Outputs:	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Coordination capacities of the state governments are strengthened through management of pilot activities and training programmes.2. Human resources for water supplies, health (maternal health) and vocational training are improved through implementation of pilot activities and training programmes.
Period:	From June 2009 to May 2013 (4 years)
Target areas:	3 Darfur States and Blue Nile and South Kordofan States
Prioritized sectors:	Water, Health (maternal care), Vocational Training and Management

Project Sites

What is Project?

x Water x Health x Vocational Training
= For Peace Building

Project Purpose

Government Bodies

Overall Goal

Public Service

Final Goal

Community People

Capacity Development of Human Resources (Individual) and Government (Organization)

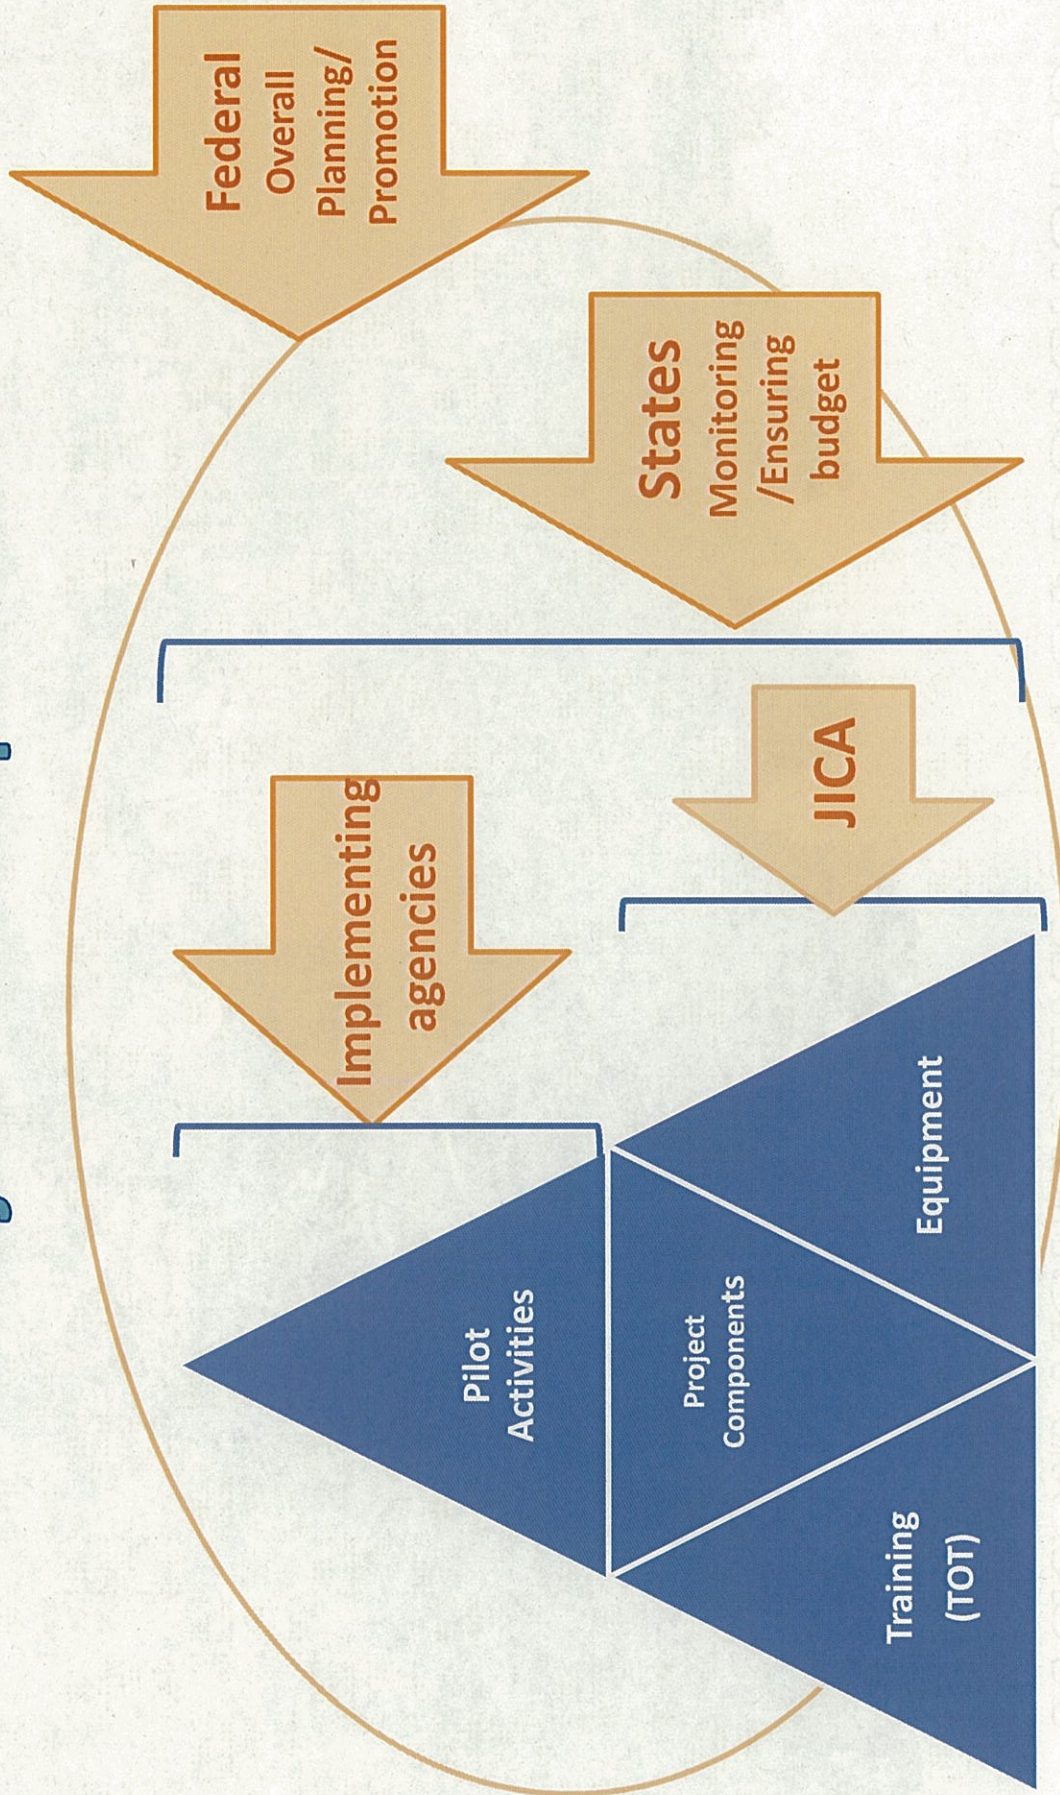

Improvement of access to Public Service

Peace and stabilities in the targeted area, improvement of daily life

Project Component

Water: Rehabilitation of Boreholes

Health: Village Midwife Training

VT: Short-Term Vocational Training

Lessons Learnt

- Synergy effects of multi-sector project contribute to
 - 1) Strengthen coordination capacity among HCDG, State Government, State Ministries of Finance, and other state ministries and implementing agencies
- Proper selection of pilot activities, target groups and service providers contribute to
 - 1) Capacity Development of government officials, and ministries
 - 2) Build trust between state governments and community people

Thank you for your attention

شکرا جزیلہ