SURVEY OUTLINE

I. Framework of the Survey

1. Activities of private companies and private-sector financing are becoming increasingly a critical part of economic growth, sustainable social development, and poverty reduction in partner countries.
2. In Japan, an increasing number of Japanese enterprises are implementing social contribution programs and establishing businesses in partner countries, which call for new partnerships between official development assistance projects and private sector activities.
3. Therefore, JICA collaborates with Japanese private enterprises to facilitate their technological and human resources in various fields, aiming at fulfilling societal needs and having a positive impact on the social welfare as well as achievement of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) of the partner countries.
4. Under such basic understandings, this Survey is implemented by 提案法人略称 based on the contract with JICA.
