11. Features of University	Traditional "Wisdom" of Reitaku "For people, for society, for the future. We endeavor to elevate ourselves, and cultivate our knowledge and morality with like-minded friends. The spirit of learning at Reitaku illuminates our paths and continues to shed its rays even as times change." Reitaku University Established College of Foreign Languages in 1959, and added the Faculty of International Economics in 1992. Now we have 2 faculties, foreign languages and economics, and 2500 students over in Kashiwa, Chiba prefecture. Our university concludes an exchange agreement with a university in Micronesia and our students are working on any projects of environmental issues and so on every year. About vast Campus of 420,000 square miles. The natural beauty of our campus, along with its ample resources and facilities, offer students a wonderfully unique learning experience. And our university is at about 30 minutes from Tokyo, or at about 1 hour from international airports (Haneda, Narita) by train and so on.
12. Features of Graduate School	The educational philosophy of the founder, "The unity of knowledge and virtue", is actively realized in the Graduate School of Economics and Business Administration. Its educational aim is to nurture "Global Servants" who can contribute to society from a global and altruistic point of view. Looking at present-day social conditions, it has been observed both at home and abroad that the alarming degeneration of political and business ethics is affecting the vital fabric of society. Reitaku University has been promoting research into business ethics and, in 2001, established the Reitaku University Business Ethics and Compliance Research Center (R-bec). Master program consisting of two majors (Economics, Business Administration) aims to train professional practitioners and researchers able to promote leading research in the field and expected to work for institutions inside and outside Japan for public policies. There are three units, economics, finance, and international public policy in the Economic major, and business administration, tax and accounting, and business ethics in the Business Administration major and several courses are offered in each of these units. At the graduate school, we provide students with the latest equipment and a relaxing environment

	where they study alongside their peers. Our professors give constant encouragement, and other staff members provide whole-hearted support in every aspect of student life. Students are assigned their own desks and lockers. This space creates such a favorable environment that some students even say that it is like having their own office.
13. Features and Curriculum of Program	1) Major in Economics (M.A. Program) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Quest for Principles of Economic Activity That Are in Harmony with Humanity and Morality The globalization of economy are accelerating ever more rapidly. There is growing significance in learning economics equipped with humanly, moral and cultural perspectives. The program in Economics Major aims at fostering professional practitioners and researchers who are able to promote leading research in the field and expected to work for institutions inside and outside Japan for public policies. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Research Contents Compatible with the Globalization of Economic Policies In the Economics Major, students theoretically and statistically analyze dynamic structural changes resulted from globalization in such factors as production and the transfer of goods and services across borders. Also, their research contents reflect various current international affairs including the globalization of finances and accounts necessary for corporal activities particularly by multinational corporations. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Stressing the Importance of Humanity and Regional Cultures in Economy In current economic and business administrative activities, it is crucial to assume an attitude to stress the importance of humanity and regional cultures of economic agents or in the sphere of activity, as well as expansion of scale and pursuit of profits. Our educational ideal “the unity of knowledge and virtue” is also much emphasized in the education of our school. 2) Business Administration (M.A. Program) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Learning Problem-Solving Oriented Managerial Skills: In today’s world, there is growing uncertainty. Students engage in their research activities with much emphasis on gaining a global perspective, a discerning eye to penetrate beyond the complexities of social circumstances and a critical problem-solving ability. The Program in Business Administration aims to bring forth policy planners and administrators that take active roles in such organizations as private business, public institution and NPOs. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Cultivating Expertise to Perform Managerial Affairs in Private Business, Public Institutions and NPOs: Students are trained to be practical experts who can solve complex problems with a global perspective in such public organizations as the governmental office, domestic and foreign business corporation or NPOs. We aim to nurture such high managerial abilities. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Focusing on Interdisciplinary-, Problem-, Policy-Oriented that the Present Society Calls For: In order to solve diverse problems in present society that is complex and constantly changing, it is assumed that three elements are important: Interdisciplinary-oriented, linking multiple expertise, problem-oriented, identifying the problems to be solved, and policy-oriented, solving them with concrete measures. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Meeting the Needs for Recurrent Education of Working Adults with High Awareness of World Issues: We cordially extend warm welcome to everyone who has high awareness of world issues, regardless of their career, age, or nationality, be it a businessperson who is thinking of learning a high degree of expertise, having come across real-world problems in practical fields, or someone with experience in business administration who is thinking of beginning a new phase in their life. ※About International Program The school started the International Program in which all the courses will be offered in English.
