

(Figure 74) Afforested area on the side of a road leading to Ellora historic site

This area is designated as wild bird sanctuary.

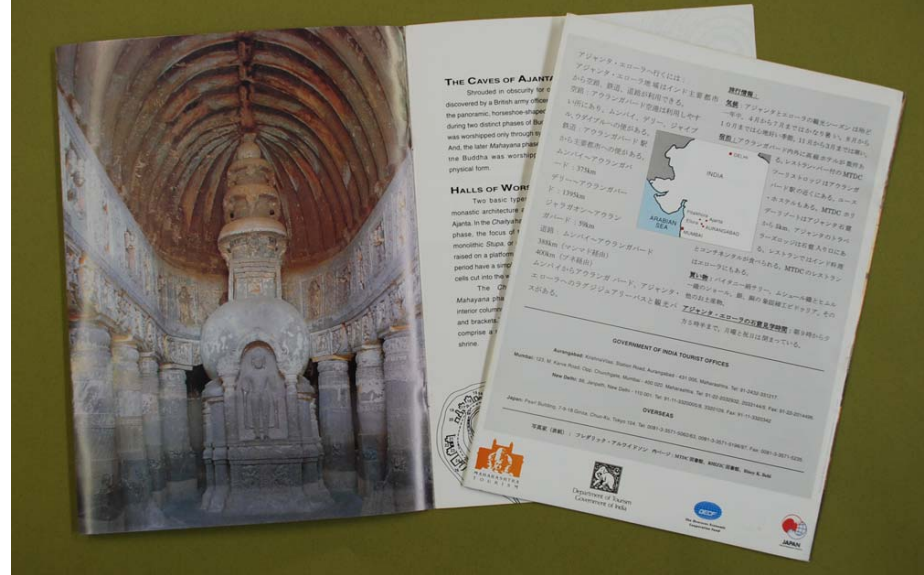

(Figure 75) Information board at the entrance of Ajanta historic site

(Figure 76) Information board at the entrance of Ellora historic site

(Figure 77) Explanatory pamphlets for Ajanta and Ellora historic sites created by MTDC

The pamphlets are prepared in English, French, German, Japanese, Hindi, as well as Marathi, which is the local language.

(Figure 78) A tour guide waiting for customers
There are no organizations that support the tour guides. The guides must solicit.

