Financial Regulation and Supervision

Objective/Outcome

Analysis of current issues in financial regulation and supervision administration of their respective countries which is recognized by participants, and the content of the seminar will be shared in their respective authority after their return.

Outcome
- To acquire the general knowledge of Japanese financial regulation and supervision
- To learn actual practices and a legal system which could be applied to respective countries
- To find issues and measures for the management of financial market policies, regulation and supervision of the banking system, and enhancement of domestic financial sectors.

Target Organization / Group

Financial regulatory and supervision authorities
- Director General of financial regulation and supervision authorities, central banks, and financial ministries
- Have more than 10 years of occupational experience in financial regulation and supervision

Contents

This course mainly focuses on financial regulation and supervision policy through theoretical and academic lectures. The contents are as follows.

- Development of legal systems of financial regulation authorities
- Macro/Micro prudence policy
- Correspondence to BASEL Capital Accord
- Financial inspection and preventive measures
- Management of risks
- Manuals and guidelines about financial regulation and supervision

Implementing Partner

Financial Services Agency, professors, etc.

Remarks and Website

Japanese experience will serve as a precedent for strengthening financial supervision.