

Health Systems Management 保健衛生管理		Continuing
Target Countries : Countries with ongoing cooperation prioritized		15 participants
Course No. : J1704207		No. : 1784416
Sector : Health/Health System
Sub-Sector :
Language : English
Outline
This program is designed for middle level managers expected to become policymakers in the future, and aims to strengthen six 'building blocks' of Health Systems defined by WHO, especially governance. This program will not go into the technical details of each sub-sectors, but place emphasis on the improvement of the managerial capacity which enables effective public health administration.
Objective/Outcome		Target Organization / Group
【Objective】 Managerial capacities such as governance and the problem solving skill of the public health organization is improved through learning various methodologies of public health administration, including the role and partnership of central and local government, health sector reform, leadership and human resources development.		【Target Organization】 Ministry of Health, local health offices and other organizations involved in health systems management, or relevant research institutions
【Outcome】 1. To be able to explain various methodologies of administrative management of public health. 2. To be able to formulate plans based on the various methods of administrative management. 3. To be able to acquire the capability of leadership for administrative management of public health.		【Target Group】 Middle level managers expected to become policy makers in the future
Contents
(Activities before coming to Japan)		Course Period	2017/05/08~2017/06/03
Preparation of the country report on the public health issues in the participants' country
(Activities in Japan)		Department in Charge	Human Development Department
1) (1) History of Japanese Public Health and administrative organization(includes discussion with Ministry of Health and Labor) (2) Health Sector Reform, (3) Health Financing (4)TQM(Total Quality Management) (5) Site visits to regional public health organization, discussion with regional public health officers 2) (6) PCM(Project Cycle Management exercise), (7) Formulation of Discussion Notes among the Participants 3) (8) Leadership in Human resources development		JICA Center	JICA Tokyo(Human Dev.)
		Cooperation Period	2016~2018
Implementing Partner	National Institute of Public Health
Remarks and Website	1. National Institute of Public Health http://www.niph.go.jp/index_en.html 2. KAIZEN portal site "Quality Improvement of Health Services through 5S-KAIZEN-TQM approach" https://www.jica.go.jp/english/our_work/thematic_issues/health/case.html		