Criminal Identification 犯罪鑑識	New

Target Countries : All eligible countries

Course No. : J1804332	No. : 1884659

Sector : Governance/Public Safety

Sub-Sector :

Language : English

Outline

In order to improve police activities such as criminal investigation and corpse identification, during the course, the participants will gain knowledge on technology and the system mainly on fingerprint and palm print identification.

Objective/Outcome	Target Organization / Group
【Objective】 By understanding the criminal identification system as well as fingerprint and palm print identification technology in Japan such as extraction and identification, the participants will instruct or share knowledge to other officers in their respective countries, thus utilizing them during their investigation. 【Outcome】 - Introduce the current situation and the problems related to criminal identification of the participating countries, - Understand the system and technology of criminal identification and its operation in Japan, and become able to explain them upon return, and - Be able to explain the methods and approaches to improve the criminal identification technologies and operations in each participant's organization based on the knowledge and experience gained during the training course.	【Target Organization】 Central Police Organization 【Target Group】 - Directors or those equivalent in Central Police Organization in charge of identification, analysis and initial investigation, - Officers in charge of identification, analysis and initial investigation on a leadership role, and - Have a good command of English

Contents
The following activities will be conducted during the training course relating to finerprint and palm print identification; 1 Lectures 2 practice and exercise 3 observation 4 Country Report Presentation 5 Preparation and Presentation of Action Plans 6 Others	Course Period	2018/10/15〜2018/10/30
	Department in Charge	Industrial Development and Public Policy Department
	JICA Center	JICA Tokyo(Industry&Public)
	Cooperation Period	2018〜2020

Implementing Partner	National Police Agency
Remarks and Website	