

Target Countries :Countries vulnerable to natural disasters

Course No. :J1804324

No. :1884734

Sector :Peace-building/Governance

Sub-Sector :

Language :English

Outline

This program focuses on the role of public administration in the process of reconstruction, consensus formation between administration and civil society in order to formulate the collective relocation plan and land-use plan, and cooperation between administration and civil society in the realm of livelihood recovery and industrial development. Furthermore, it offers a dialogue with civil society in order to learn their reconstruction experiences.

Objective/Outcome		Target Organization / Group
【Objective】 Participants learn the role of public administration in the process of reconstruction, consensus formation between administration and civil society in order to formulate the collective relocation plan and land-use plan, and cooperation between administration and civil society in the realm of livelihood recovery and industrial development. This program contributes for the participants to enhance capability to clarify challenges, formulate related policies, execute the plan in the respective countries. 【Outcome】 1. To understand the role of public administration in the process of disaster reconstruction. 2. To understand the role of various actors in the society in the process of disaster reconstruction. 3. To learn related laws and systems in terms of disaster reconstruction. 4. To share challenges of the respective countries in the realm of reconstruction. 5. To propose possible approaches for a better disaster reconstruction.		【Target Organization】 - Administrative organizations that are engaged in reconstruction policies. - Administrative organizations that execute disaster reconstruction projects. - NGOs. 【Target Group】 - Administrative officer involved in reconstruction policies. - Administrative officer involved in collaboration of local actors. - NGO staff involved in disaster reconstruction activities.
Contents 1. To understand the role of public administration in the process of disaster reconstruction. - Lectures on town management for disaster rehabilitation and reconstruction of Higashimatsushima City based on the experience of Great East Japan Earthquake. - Lectures on "Build Back Better" efforts of Higashimatsushima City. - Site visits to disaster affected areas. - Introduction of SDGs efforts of Higashimatsushima City. 2. To understand the role of various actors in the society in the process of disaster reconstruction. - Lectures on efforts of other actors in the society such as industry, public administrative bodies, academia and private sectors. - Lectures on collaboration of public administration and society. - Introduction of how to involve the socially vulnerable groups in the process of reconstruction. - Dialogue with citizens in terms of citizen participation from the point of view of society. 3. To learn related laws and systems in terms of disaster reconstruction. - Lectures on related laws and their backgrounds and transitions. 4. To share challenges of the respective countries in the realm of reconstruction. - To share information collected from country reports or discussions done within this program. 5. To propose possible approaches for a better disaster reconstruction. - Action plan presentation.		Course Period 2018/10~2018/11	Department in Charge Infrastructure and Peacebuilding Department
		JICA Center JICA Tohoku
		Cooperation Period 2018~2020
Implementing Partner	Under Planning
Remarks and Website			