

Necessary Policy Measures for Financial System Stability and SME development in NIS Countries NIS地域金融システム安定化政策及び中小企業育成支援策		Continuing
Target Countries :NIS Countries
Course No. :J1804023		No. :1884614
Sector :Economic Policy/Financial System
Sub-Sector :Economic Policy/Transition to Market Economy
Language :Russian
Outline
This seminar is designed for officials of central banks and financial regulatory authorities, and officials from ministries responsible for SME development in NIS (New Independent States). Through examples in Japan and each country, participants clarify financial systems of transitional economy countries and current problems of SME development. Participants make action plans to promote these goals in their countries.
Objective/Outcome		Target Organization / Group
【Objective】 Action plans for the development of SME finance in each country formulated during the training will be shared among relevant organizations.		【Target Organization】 Central Bank, Financial Regulatory Agencies, and Ministries responsible for SME development
【Outcome】 1. Participants can clarify the current problems of the financial system in each country, through the deeper understanding of other countries' experience in financial system development. 2. Participants can explain the necessary policy measures for SME development. 3. Participants can explain the necessary policy measures to strengthen finance institutions. 4. Participants can explain the necessity of financial system design to diversify the loan method in SME finances. 5. Participants can clarify the information obtained and discuss to propose for the problem solution.		【Target Group】 1. Be an official making policy on SME finance in the organization above. 2. Have at least 5-year experience in the field 3. Be proficient in Russian
Contents		Course Period	2019/1/27～2019/2/23
1. Lectures, Discussions, Observation-tours on the following topics; Financial regulation and supervision policy, Enterprise Turnaround Initiative Corporation of Japan, SME development Policies, Cooperative financial institutions, SME finance, Credit Guarantee system, SME and financial institution site visit 2. Country Report presentation and discussion, formulating and presenting the Action Plan			Department in Charge	Industrial Development and Public Policy Department
			JICA Center	JICA Tokyo (Industry&Public)
			Cooperation Period	2016～2018
Implementing Partner	Kinzai Institute for Financial Affairs, Inc
Remarks and Website				