

Financial regulation and supervision 金融規制監督		Continuing
Target Countries :All the world
Course No. : J1804133		No. :1884855
Sector :Economic Policy/Financial System
Sub-Sector :
Language :English
Outline
A sound banking sector serves as a locomotive for economy, being a major financier for business. However, inadequate financial regulation may bring poor credit assessments, accumulation of bad loans, and rapid deterioration of the financial ground of banking sectors. Bankruptcy of the banks may cause terrible influence. Japanese experience will serve as a precedent for strengthening financial supervision.
Objective/Outcome		Target Organization / Group
【Objective】 Analysis of current issues in financial regulation and supervision administration of their respective countries which is recognized by participants.		【Target Organization】 Financial regulatory and supervision authorities
【Outcome】 1. Participants can explain the current situation of financial supervisory functions in Japan. 2. Participants can clarify the basic conditions required for financial supervision administration. 3. Participants can explain the legal systems , audit and supervisory approaches required for the financial supervision administration of their respective country. 4. Participants can make the action plan to improve the financial regulation and supervision administration of their respective countries.		【Target Group】 - Director General of financial regulation and supervision authorities, central banks, and financial ministries - Have more than 10 years of occupational experience in financial regulation and supervision
Contents		Course Period	2018/10/10～2018/10/27
This course mainly focuses on financial regulation and supervision policy through theoretical lectures. The contents are as follows. - Development of legal systems of financial regulation authorities - Macro/Micro prudence policy - Correspondence to BASEL Capital Accord - Financial inspection and preventive measures - Management of risks - Manuals and guidelines about financial regulation and supervision - Job Report presentation - Action Plan presentation
		Department in Charge	Industrial Development and Public Policy Department
		JICA Center	JICA Tokyo (Industry&Public)
		Cooperation Period	2016～2018
Implementing Partner	Kinzai Institute for Finaincal Affairs, Inc
Remarks and Website			