Extension Methodologies of Sustainable Conservation Oriented Agriculture, Latin America

Objective

Extension plans which contained sustainable conservation oriented agriculture method for small scale farmers will be made.

Outcome

1. To extract and analyze challenges of sustainable conservation oriented agriculture and extension methods in participant’s targeted areas. (Inception Report)
2. To identify his/her role and necessary knowledge/techniques through learned conception and knowledge/techniques of sustainable conservation oriented agriculture.
3. To explain essential points of organize farmers group and strengthening of management capability for small scare farmers.
4. To understand effective extension methods, practice management, monitoring and evaluation techniques.
5. To make an Action Plan (Action Plan)
6. To join Ex-participants Network (RED LAOPS: Latino Americana de Agricultora Organica y Produccion Sostenible) and share their good practices and identify his/her role as RED members.
7. To share made Action Plan and RED activities to their organization and will be created final Action Plan.

Contents

Preliminary Phase

To create Inception Report based on extract and analyze challenges of sustainable conservation oriented agriculture in participant’s organization and targeted areas.

Phase in Japan

To understand organic agriculture, Bio-gas, vegetable cultivation, Natural pesticide, processing of agricultural products etc through lecture, discussion, site visit and field practices and finally making an Action Plan.

Third-country training

To join Ex-participants Network (RED LAOPS) and share each good practice/activity their own country and clarify his/her role as RED members. Make an Action Plan based on the third-country training.