<pre>bservations and interactive discussions to improve access to quality-assured edicines, focused on regulatory system and supply chain for medicines, including ountermeasure against substandard and falsified medicines. [Outcome] .To be able to understand and compare pharmaceutical regulatory system in the heath ervice system of Japan and participating countries, as well as to understand trends f international collaboration among regulatory authorities. .To be able to understand regulatory management for access to quality medicines ncluding inspection system. .To be able to understand actual operations in local government, medical nstitutions and manufactures for ensuring quality of medicines. .To be able to clarify own countrie's challenges through learning and sharing xperiences as well as discussions.</pre>	Target to and s to quality Target org [Target Org Medicines Re related orga [Target Gro (1) Governme engaged in m pharmaceutic planning/im pharmaceutic (2) Senior p level hospit management of of medicines close connee pharmaceutic and its rele highly recom	alyze the country's medicines in their own c Organization / Group ganization] egulatory Authorities and anizations oup] ent officials who are making policies on cal affairs and/or plementation of cal regulatory services, or pharmacists of tertiary tal, who are engaged in of supply and rational uses s and human development in ction with the national cal regulatory authorities evant agencies. It is mmendable that he/she is a pharmaceutical department
Setor : Health/Health System Sub-Sector : Health/Uther Health Issues Language : English Outline n this program, participants will learn 1) regulatory related systems on pharmaceutic uality assured medicines through lectures and site-visits. Also, participants are exp rioritized issues and discuss the applicable measurements for improving proper access ountries. (Objective] his course targets administrators and pharmacists and provides lectures, bservations and interactive discussions to improve access to quality-assured edicines, focused on regulatory system and supply chain for medicines, including ountermeasure against substandard and falsified medicines. [(Outcome] To be able to understand and compare pharmaceutical regulatory system in the heath ervice system of Japan and participating countries, as well as to understand trends f international collaboration among regulatory authorities. To be able to understand regulatory management for access to quality medicines neluding inspection system. To be able to understand regulatory in paper in the heath ervice system of Japan and participating countries, as well as to understand trends f international collaboration among regulatory authorities. To be able to understand regulatory management for access to quality medicines neluding inspection system. To be able to clarify own countrie's challenges through learning and sharing xperiences as well as discussions.	Target Target Target Org Medicines Re related orga (Target Gro (1) Governme engaged in m pharmaceutic planning/im pharmaceutic (2) Senior p level hospit management of of medicines close connec pharmaceutic and its rele highly recon director of or equivaler	alyze the country's medicines in their own c Organization / Group ganization] egulatory Authorities and anizations oup] ent officials who are making policies on cal affairs and/or plementation of cal regulatory services, or pharmacists of tertiary tal, who are engaged in of supply and rational uses s and human development in ction with the national cal regulatory authorities evant agencies. It is mmendable that he/she is a pharmaceutical department nt.
Sub-Sector : Health/Other Health Issues Untime Outline n this program, participants will learn 1) regulatory related systems on pharmaceutic uality assured medicines through lectures and site-visits. Also, participants are exprioritized issues and discuss the applicable measurements for improving proper access ountries. Objective/Outcome (Objective/Outcome (Outcome (Outcome (Outcome Colspan="2">(Outcome Adjection	Target Target Target Org Medicines Re related orga (Target Gro (1) Governme engaged in m pharmaceutic planning/im pharmaceutic (2) Senior p level hospit management of of medicines close connec pharmaceutic and its rele highly recon director of or equivaler	alyze the country's medicines in their own c Organization / Group ganization] egulatory Authorities and anizations oup] ent officials who are making policies on cal affairs and/or plementation of cal regulatory services, or pharmacists of tertiary tal, who are engaged in of supply and rational uses and human development in ction with the national cal regulatory authorities evant agencies. It is mmendable that he/she is a pharmaceutical department nt.
Outline n this program, participants will learn 1) regulatory related systems on pharmaceutic uality assured medicines through lectures and site-visits. Also, participants are exprioritized issues and discuss the applicable measurements for improving proper access ountries. Objective/Outcome [Objective] his course targets administrators and pharmacists and provides lectures, bservations and interactive discussions to improve access to quality-assured edicines, focused on regulatory system and supply chain for medicines, including ountermeasure against substandard and falsified medicines. [Outcome] To be able to understand and compare pharmaceutical regulatory system in the heath ervice system of Japan and participating countries, as well as to understand trends f international collaboration among regulatory authorities. . To be able to understand actual operations in local government, medical netitutions and manufactures for ensuring quality of medicines. . To be able to understand actual operations in local government, medical netitutions and manufactures for ensuring quality of medicines. . To be able to understand actual operations in local government, medical netitutions and manufactures for ensuring quality of medicines. . To be able to clarify own countrie's challenges through learning and sharing xperiences as well as discussions. . 1) Overview of pharmaceutical regulatory system in Japan (Legislation, Pharmaceutical approval system, Good Manufacturing Practices(GMP), Health insurance system and drug price listing, Safety measures, etc.), . 1)	Target Target Target Org Medicines Re related orga (Target Gro (1) Governme engaged in m pharmaceutic planning/im pharmaceutic (2) Senior p level hospit management of of medicines close connec pharmaceutic and its rele highly recon director of or equivaler	alyze the country's medicines in their own c Organization / Group ganization] egulatory Authorities and anizations oup] ent officials who are making policies on cal affairs and/or plementation of cal regulatory services, or pharmacists of tertiary tal, who are engaged in of supply and rational uses and human development in ction with the national cal regulatory authorities evant agencies. It is mmendable that he/she is a pharmaceutical department nt.
n this program, participants will learn 1) regulatory related systems on pharmaceutic uality assured medicines through lectures and site-visits. Also, participants are exp rioritized issues and discuss the applicable measurements for improving proper access ountries. (Objective) his course targets administrators and pharmacists and provides lectures, bservations and interactive discussions to improve access to quality-assured edicines, focused on regulatory system and supply chain for medicines, including ountermeasure against substandard and falsified medicines. [Outcome] To be able to understand and compare pharmaceutical regulatory system in the heath ervice system of Japan and participating countries, as well as to understand trends finternational collaboration among regulatory authorities. To be able to understand actual operations in local government, medical nstitutions and manufactures for ensuring quality of medicines. To be able to understand actual operations in local government, medical nstitutions and manufactures for ensuring quality of medicines. To be able to system. Contents 	Target Target Target Org Medicines Re related orga (Target Gro (1) Governme engaged in m pharmaceutic planning/im pharmaceutic (2) Senior p level hospit management of of medicines close connec pharmaceutic and its rele highly recon director of or equivaler	alyze the country's medicines in their own c Organization / Group ganization] egulatory Authorities and anizations oup] ent officials who are making policies on cal affairs and/or plementation of cal regulatory services, or pharmacists of tertiary tal, who are engaged in of supply and rational uses and human development in ction with the national cal regulatory authorities evant agencies. It is mmendable that he/she is a pharmaceutical department nt.
[Objective] his course targets administrators and pharmacists and provides lectures, bservations and interactive discussions to improve access to quality-assured edicines, focused on regulatory system and supply chain for medicines, including ountermeasure against substandard and falsified medicines. [Outcome] To be able to understand and compare pharmaceutical regulatory system in the heath ervice system of Japan and participating countries, as well as to understand trends f international collaboration among regulatory authorities. To be able to understand regulatory management for access to quality medicines neluding inspection system. To be able to understand actual operations in local government, medical nstitutions and manufactures for ensuring quality of medicines. To be able to clarify own countrie's challenges through learning and sharing xperiences as well as discussions. 1) Overview of pharmaceutical regulatory system in Japan (Legislation, Pharmaceutical approval system, Good Manufacturing Practices(GMP), Health insurance system and drug price listing, Safety measures, etc.), 2) Trends in international cooperation among regulatory authorities 3) Inception report presentation and discussion	[Target Org Medicines Re related orga [Target Gro (1) Governme engaged in m pharmaceutic planning/im pharmaceutic (2) Senior p level hospit management of of medicines close connec pharmaceutic and its rele highly recon director of or equivaler	ganization] egulatory Authorities and anizations oup] ent officials who are making policies on cal affairs and/or plementation of cal regulatory services, of pharmacists of tertiary tal, who are engaged in of supply and rational uses s and human development in ction with the national cal regulatory authorities evant agencies. It is mmendable that he/she is a pharmaceutical departmen- nt.
his course targets administrators and pharmacists and provides lectures, bservations and interactive discussions to improve access to quality-assured edicines, focused on regulatory system and supply chain for medicines, including ountermeasure against substandard and falsified medicines. [Outcome] To be able to understand and compare pharmaceutical regulatory system in the heath ervice system of Japan and participating countries, as well as to understand trends f international collaboration among regulatory authorities. To be able to understand regulatory management for access to quality medicines neluding inspection system. To be able to understand actual operations in local government, medical nstitutions and manufactures for ensuring quality of medicines. To be able to clarify own countrie's challenges through learning and sharing xperiences as well as discussions.	Medicines Re related orga (1) Governme engaged in m pharmaceutic planning/imp pharmaceutic (2) Senior p level hospit management of of medicines close connect pharmaceutic and its rele highly recom director of or equivaler	egulatory Authorities and anizations oup] ent officials who are making policies on cal affairs and/or plementation of cal regulatory services, of pharmacists of tertiary tal, who are engaged in of supply and rational uses and human development in ction with the national cal regulatory authorities evant agencies. It is mmendable that he/she is a pharmaceutical department nt.
ervice system of Japan and participating countries, as well as to understand trends f international collaboration among regulatory authorities. . To be able to understand regulatory management for access to quality medicines ncluding inspection system. . To be able to understand actual operations in local government, medical nstitutions and manufactures for ensuring quality of medicines. . To be able to clarify own countrie's challenges through learning and sharing xperiences as well as discussions. 1) Overview of pharmaceutical regulatory system in Japan (Legislation, Pharmaceutical approval system, Good Manufacturing Practices(GMP), Health insurance system and drug price listing, Safety measures, etc.), 2) Trends in international cooperation among regulatory authorities 3) Inception report presentation and discussion	planning/imp pharmaceutic (2) Senior p level hospit management c of medicines close connec pharmaceutic and its rele highly recon director of or equivaler	plementation of cal regulatory services, of pharmacists of tertiary tal, who are engaged in of supply and rational use s and human development in ction with the national cal regulatory authorities evant agencies. It is mmendable that he/she is a pharmaceutical department nt.
1) Overview of pharmaceutical regulatory system in Japan (Legislation, Pharmaceutical approval system, Good Manufacturing Practices(GMP), Health insurance system and drug price listing, Safety measures, etc.), 2) Trends in international cooperation among regulatory authorities 3) Inception report presentation and discussion	Course Period	2019/7~2019/8
 Pharmaceutical approval system, Good Manufacturing Practices(GMP), Health insurance system and drug price listing, Safety measures, etc.), 2) Trends in international cooperation among regulatory authorities 3) Inception report presentation and discussion 	Course Period
) Overviewing role of stakeholders to ensure quality-assured medicines (Activities	Department	Human Development Department by importers, manufacturing companies, wholesalers, hospitals and pharmacies), (2) Pharmaceutical inspection system (Collaboration with local government, etc.),	in Charge	JICA Tokyo(Human D.&Ope.C.)
ield trip to Toyama prefecture (Local government, Pharmaceutical manufacturer and harmaceutical Research Institute) l) Summing-up discussion, Feedback session of group programs, Final report making and presentation 	JICA Center
& This program incorporates "Active Learning" for Knowledge Co-creation (KCCP).
	Cooperation Period	2018~2020
Implementing Japan International Corporation of Welfare Services (JICWELS) Partner Implementing Remarks		