

Improvement of Maternal Health for French-Speaking African Countries (for government officials) アフリカ仏語圏地域 妊産婦の健康改善(行政官対象)		Continuing
Target Countries : French Speaking African Countries
Course No. : 201984450-J002
No. : 201984450
Sector : Health/MCH /Reproductive Health
Sub-Sector : Health/Health System
Language : French
Outline
Succeeding the Millenium Development Goals (MDGs), Sustainable Development Goals(SDGs) continues to weigh emphasis on the reduction of maternal mortality rate (MMR). This program is designed to learn Japanese maternal newborn and child health system/policies and the concept of "continuum care," targeting the African Region in order to improve maternal and newborn care.
Objective/Outcome		Target Organization / Group
【Objective】 The participants will acquire the ability which enable them to make suggestions for the refinement of their/their organizations' task to contribute to the improvement of maternal and newborn child health of their countries based on the concept of "Continuum care." 【Outcome】 1. To analyze the gaps and bottlenecks in maternal and neonatal health in participants' countries, and understand the concept of "Continuum care" 2. To understand Japan's health system, maternal and child health policy, it's implementation and actual practices in the field 3. To share and discuss the experiences of maternal and newborn health services of each country, and to identify the activities for dealing with the gaps and bottlenecks in participants' country 4. To make an action plan of participants/ participants' organization for the improvement of maternal and neonatal health in participants' country.		【Target Organization】 National or Regional Governmental Health Administration 【Target Group】 • Governmental officials who are in charge of planning / implementing maternal health program at national or regional level • To have a minimum of 5 years of experience as an official mentioned above. • Medical professional (MD, Ns, MW etc.)
Contents
1. Situation analysis of maternal and neonatal health. 2. Discussion and presentation on the analysis of the gaps and bottlenecks of maternal and neonatal health among participants 3. Introduction of good practices on improvement of maternal health 4. Introduction of Japan's Health System 5. Maternal and child health history, policy and implementation in Japan 6. Field observation on "Continuum of care" • System of emergency obstetric and neonatal care (EmONC) • Coordination of medical institutions and governmental organizations • Facility and community-based preventive care and awareness creation, including family planning • Improvement of the access to the health facility, referral system, and of the accuracy of health information 7. Revision of the field observation and discussion on the feasible actions in participants' country 8. Revision of the whole sessions and discussion on feasible actions to improve maternal and neonatal health in consideration of the action plan of participants' organization ※In this program, we introduce "Active Learning" approach to promote knowledge co-creation among participants.		Course Period
		Department in Charge
		JICA Center
		Cooperation Period
Implementing Partner	National Center for Global Health and Medicine
Remarks and Website	National Center for Global Health and Medicine (NCGM) http://www.ncgm.go.jp	