

Improvement of Housing and Living Environment 住宅・住環境の改善		Updated
Target Countries : All
Course No. : 201984768-J002
No. : 201984768
Sector : Urban/Regional Development/Urban Development
Sub-Sector :
Language : English
Outline
In developing countries, the development of comfortable housing and of living environments with excellent disaster-prevention measures is important. This course introduces extensive Japanese know-how and policies related to improvement of housing and living environments.
Objective/Outcome		Target Organization / Group
【Objective】 To Improve planning and performance ability of policy-makers in national governments, local governments and governmental organizations that oversee the improvement policy of housing and living environments in developing countries.		【Target Organization】 Central/local government, governmental organizations involved in the planning of policies for improvement of housing and living environment,
【Outcome】 1. To learn land and house ownership system and housing situation in Japan. 2. To understand the outline of policies and systems on public housing and housing loan in Japan, and examples of development projects of public housing. 3. To learn outline of policies and systems concerning living environment development in Japan. 4. To gain knowledge of the outline of policies and systems on reconstruction of housing. 5. To identify the situation of the approach to policy issues in respective countries. And to analyze situations of his/her country and to study countermeasures.
Contents
<Preliminary Phase in a participant's home country> Formulation and submission of Inception Report		Course Period
<Core Phase in Japan> 1. Housing Policies in Japan 2. Housing Supply 3. Improvement of Living Environment 4. Post-Disaster Housing Reconstruction 5. Recent Trend 6. Improvement of Housing and Living Environment in Developing Countries		Department in Charge
※In this program, we introduce "Active Learning" approach to promote knowledge co-creation among participants.		JICA Center
		Cooperation Period
Implementing Partner	Under Planning
Remarks and Website		