

Country-focused Training Course on “Integrated Water Resources Management for Iran”

Course Objectives:

Through the training course, the participants are expected to:

- 1) understand Integrated Water Resources Management practice and supporting system,
- 2) learn ground water utilization and conservation,
- 3) learn public relations activities in a public corporation,
- 4) learn rainwater harvest, and
- 5) learn radar rain-gauge and runoff analysis.

Implementation Institution:

The training institution is Incorporated Administrative Agency Japan Water Agency (JWA).

Target Participants:

The target group is manager and experts of Water Resources Management Company (WRMC) or Regional Water Board (RWB) who are engaged in water resources management at national /regional level.