

FACTS: The Global Water Crisis
Explained in Facts and Figures and How JICA Helps

CULTURE: Saving the World's Cultural and Natural Splendors—from the Galapagos Islands to Egypt's Treasures

JICA's WORLD

JUNE 2009 VOL. 1 • Nº 3 THE MAGAZINE OF THE JAPAN INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION AGENCY WWW.JICA.GO.JP/ENGLISH

Inclusive and Dynamic Development
Emphasizes Human Security for All
Operates in Some 150 Countries
An Estimated $10 Billion in Available Resources
Provides the Globe's Most Vulnerable People
Provides Technical Assistance, Soft Loans and Grant Aid
The World's Largest Bilateral Development Agency
Construction, Water, Agricultural Projects
Grassroots Health, Economic and Education Programs
World's Largest Development Training Program
Earthquake, Flood and Other Natural Disaster Relief

Water Shortage

MILLIONS
FACE POVERTY,
EVEN DEATH
BECAUSE OF THE GROWING
CRISIS