Conditions and matters to bear in mind when selling products or raising funds

Profit-making activities are prohibited in our facilities; this applies equally to the sale of products and fundraising, except when approved by JICA in advance based on the "Application for Sale of Products or Fundraising Activity".

When selling products or engaging in fundraising activity, please submit this application form together with the "Application for Use of JICA Facilities", bearing the following points in mind.

- (1) Sale of products or fundraising may not be the main purpose of using the facilities.
- (2) When selling books, only those related to the applicant organization or the applicant organization's activities will be subject to approval.
- (3) Sales of products on commission from other organizations or sales of fresh food will not be permitted.
- (4) The proceeds of product sales or fundraising must be used to support the organization's activity or for the public interests.
