

Introducing the efforts by Japanese companies in accelerating shift to EVs

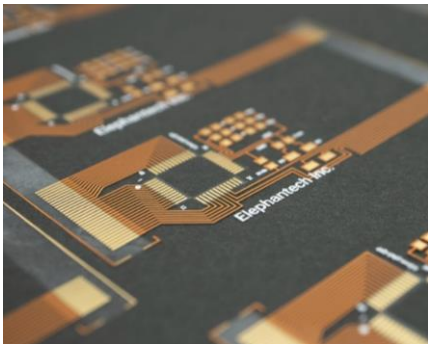

March 10, 2023 (Friday) 11:00 - 12:15 (India time) / 14:30-15:45 (Japan time)

Introducing a Japanese company that develops EV three wheelers and charging infrastructure in India, making electronic circuit boards (PCB), which are increasing due to the shift to EVs, with a new manufacturing method.

For those who wish to have business matching with the speakers, we will set up a private meeting.

① Elephantech

A new manufacturing method for the electronic circuit board (PCB) by (shortening the manufacturing process on large scale) has reduced the environmental impact and the price also. Desire to develop sales channels in India.

② Terra Motors

Mainly sells EV three wheelers in India. In order to further expansion of EV three wheelers, desire to have business matching related to charging infrastructure development.

③ Kimura Foundry

Focusing on the production of cast iron parts using the full mold casting method, Currently working on manufacturing lightweight aluminum parts. In India, promoting a casting engineer training project with JICA.

