The 2030 Agenda (TF1): Overview of Policy Briefs
(Updated: Dec. 7, 2018)

Universal Health Coverage

New

Giving due consideration to the discussions at the Health Working Group (Sherpa Track) and the Finance Track.

- G20's role in achieving Universal Health Coverage for all.

Education

Focusing on education in development as an enabler of SDGs

- Quality education, socio-emotional skills, Early childhood development, STEM, girls education, etc.

Finance & Governance

- Scaling up sustainable finance (approaches); debt sustainability; global mechanism for information sharing; financing GPG

The Role of the Private Sector

New

- Converting SDG awareness into concrete actions; incentivizing corporate behavior; creating ecosystem; upgrading enterprise & policy capabilities of developing countries, etc.

Technology Cooperation

New

- Contribution of STI to SDG advancement; emerging new modalities

Gender

Closely working with W20 & C20 (and other engagement groups).

- Labor equity, Finance equity, Digital equity
- Governance (private sector, public sector, measuring progress)

Policy Brief Title (as of Dec. 12, 2018)

Areas	Topics of Policy Briefs (Tentative)
Universal Health Coverage	• Deliberate Next Steps toward a New Globalism for UHC
Education	• Education as an Enabler to Achieve the SDGs • Early Childhood Development Competent System: Recommendations for G20 • Gender Equality in Education • How to Leapfrog Progress in Education and What the G-20 can Do to Rapidly Accelerate the Pace of Change.
Finance & Governance	• Sustainable Finance for Development
Private sector	• Scaling up Business Impact on the SDGs
Technology Cooperation	• Leveraging STI for Advancing the SDGs
Gender	• A Gendered Perspective on Changing Demographics: Implications for Labour, Financial and Digital Equity • Economic Governance and Gender: Approaches for Strengthening Policy Making Processes and Measuring Impact