Staying in Japan (Kitakyushu City) is an experience I will never forget. Starting from when I arrived, my stay was absolutely great. The people I met were so polite and hospitable. Also meeting colleagues from other countries and building a network with them was a very exciting experience. I learned a lot from the Japanese and Japanese culture, especially that people are very accurate with time. It was a pity that I caught a cold during my stay except for catching a cold day for a holiday in Japan.
