In order to cope with an expected demand of new HOB, it is anticipated that local manufacture’s capability is limited and therefore requires to establish a sustainable product capacity. From this view point, we prioritize an injection of capital to a local manufactures to support and then look for a chance to establish an joint company with a local company or our own subsidy after seeing an improvement of product capacity.