Japan's Bilateral Assistance in the Philippines

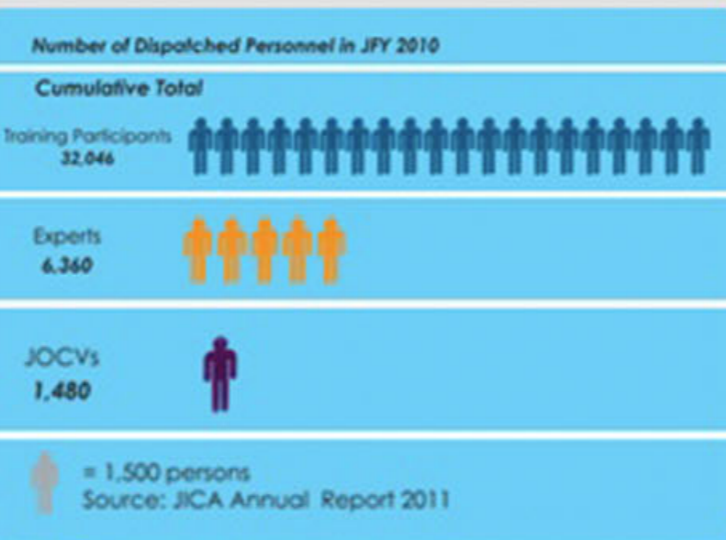

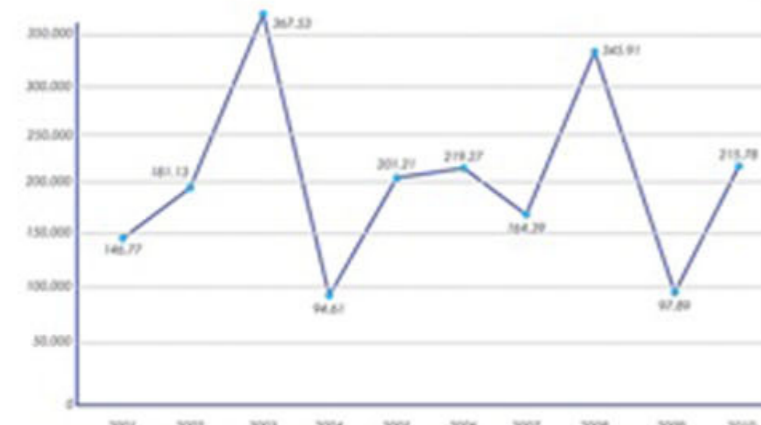

ABOUT JICA

The Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA) is an agency of the Government of Japan responsible for implementing Japan's official development assistance (ODA). It is one of the world's largest bilateral aid agencies with about USD10.3 billion in financial resources and a network of more than 100 overseas offices around the world. With the vision of "inclusive and dynamic development," JICA has been assisting over 150 countries including the Philippines through technical cooperation, grant aid and yen loan programs.

Aligning its strategy with development plans of the recipient country, JICA's assistance to the Philippines centers on three priority areas—(1) sustainable economic growth aimed at creating employment opportunities; (2) poverty reduction; and (3) peace and stability in Mindanao.
