

ANNEX 2 Danger Signs during Pregnancy

The figures below show the danger signs during pregnancy. CHT Members should immediately refer the pregnant woman to the health facility if they identify any of the following danger signs.

| | | |
|---|--|---|
|  |  |  |
| Severe Headache | Dizziness, Blurring of Vision | Swelling of the legs, hands or face |
|  |  |  |
| Fever & Chills | Vaginal Bleeding/Spotting | Vomiting & Severe Abdominal Pain |
|  |  |  |
| Watery Vaginal Discharge | Convulsion/Loss of Consciousness | Absence/Reduced Fetal Movement |