

MoH Project for Strengthening HIV/AIDS Laboratory Network Services

Ms. Fales Mwamba
Acting Deputy Director of Laboratory Services
Ministry of Health
10th December 2009

Presentation Outline

- Project Information
- Programmatic Context
- Project Activities on Quality Assurance
- Why is Quality Assurance important?

Project Information

- MoH/JICA collaboration project
- Duration
June 2007- May 2010 (3 years)
- Project Purpose
The establishment of National Laboratory Quality Assurance system accordingly based on 'Operational Plan for the National Laboratory System'

Project Information (Continued)

- Project Counterparts
Laboratory Services Unit in MoH
University Teaching Hospital (UTH)
- Project Targets
University Teaching Hospital (UTH)
3 Central and 7 Provincial Level Laboratories

Programmatic Context

Project Activities on Quality Assurance

- Focus on Internal Quality Control
- supervisory visits started in August 2008 and they are conducted to the target laboratory every quarter
- The supervisory team is formed with UTH laboratory and JICA Project staff
- Activities in the supervisory visits
  - Monitor the performance in the target laboratories (e.g. testing operations, use of the MoH IQC Forms, laboratory management)
  - Provide technical supports
  - Send feedback reports to the target laboratories

Why is QA Important?

Ladies and Gentlemen
Thank you for listening

